Online Safety

The city-builder Township provides its legions of devotees with accessible, satisfying fun but exposes them to potential hazards at the same time.

However, any safeguarding issues that the game might have can (with a little knowhow) be neutralised – allowing young players to have some engrossing fun without adults needing to worry about children's data, their money or their mental wellbeing. This guide outlines how to help young gamers enjoy Township safely and responsibly.

A Fond Farewell

Our school cleaner, Mrs Rigby, has made the difficult decision to retire at the end of next week - Friday 26th April.

Mrs Rigby is our longest-serving colleague at Brookdale, having served the school and its community for more than 36 years! She will be missed by the whole community, including her colleagues and the children.

The children will have the opportunity to wish Mrs Rigby well for a happy retirement during assembly on her last day and the staff will be sure to give her an excellent send off that evening as well!

Mrs Rigby's role will be fulfilled by a commercial cleaning company going forward which will allow us to ensure that Mrs Rigby's high standards are maintained in future.

I am sure you will join me in firstly wishing Mrs Rigby a long, happy and very well-deserved retirement; I know she will miss being part of our Brookdale family.

Brookdale in the Community

Have you spotted the new Brookdale phone box installation outside the Post Office in Greasby? Do take a look if not!

Thanks to Miss Prandle and Mrs Jones and the talented Year 4 and 5 Art Club for creating this amazing display to share with the Greasby community.

There will be another fabulous Brookdale installation appearing in the Caulfied Drive phone box later this week - keep your eyes peeled!

Year 4 Poetry Book

Nine of our Year 4 children have had their work published in this fantastic book after they entered a creative writing competition last term. Congratulations to our budding Year 4 authors and poets—well done, #teamBrookdale!

Naughty Buses Invade F2!

A 'police officer' sent a video message to our F2 children yesterday morning, informing them about a number of naughty buses (inspired by the story Naughty Bus) that had escaped and hidden around the F2 classroom and outdoor area. The children enjoyed searching for the buses and recording the various hiding places for the 'police investigation'; their application of phonics in their writing was amazing—well done, F2!
